Social Skills Focus at MIPS

This fortnight's Social Skill is:

JOINING IN

- Decide if you want to join in.
- How will you approach the situation? What will you say?
- Choose a good time
- Say "May I play" in a friendly way.
- How do you make someone feel comfortable to join in?
- Are you approachable and inclusive?
- Take time to stop and notice if there are others that may need encouragement or a friend to help them join in.

Parent Links: Encourage your child to have friends over to play. Remind the children of the importance of fair play and following the rules of the game. Let them know at the end of play how well they went. "You and John must be feeling good about the way you took turns, played by the rules and didn't leave anyone out when you were playing today". If there are problems, ask the children to think of ways both could get what they want without being left out of the game. Help your child to resolve conflict that may occur in a positive way "How can we make things better?" Remind your child about the importance of being inclusive and not leaving anyone out.
