Dear Parents of Year 5,

It has been a tradition at Mary Immaculate Primary School to invite families to assist in the Rite of Passage for the children of Year 6, known as Graduation and the closing of their Primary years. The Celebration of The Eucharist and Graduation Ceremony is at 7pm on Tuesday the 13th December.

This celebration is followed by a light supper that is provided by the school. Traditionally at Mary Immaculate, the supper is prepared and served by parents of the current Year Five children. We hope to continue this tradition into 2012 and beyond.

We welcome and appreciate the assistance of any Year 5 Parents to help with the preparation of Supper on the evening of the Graduation. If you are able to help on the evening, please complete the return slip and pass it on to Miss Clark by early in Term 4.

Thank you,

Miss Kylie Clark

Please return to Miss Clark if you are able to assist at the Year 6 Graduation on Tuesday, 13th December 2011
